OUR LAST CLUB MEETING

On the hottest day of this year so far players and audience alike enjoyed the luxury of our fully air conditioned club along with great music. This month our club band, Breakthru' had John Ward very ably standing in on Bass Guitar for John Ross who was on holiday. From the photo you can clearly see how much he enjoyed the evening. The band kicked off with some great Shadows vocals, some of which they will be performing at our special 7th Birthday meeting on the 21st November, before our individual players began stepping up onto our newly extended stage to perform along with Breakthru' and or backing tracks. At this point the club would like to make a special thanks to Vince & Bruce for constructing the stage extension and to John Rosenberg for setting up the new lighting stands in what was effectively a dress rehearsal for our big show in November. Great job lads!

JOHN BELL PLAYS HIS NEW STRATOCASTER

Many of you will know that the legendary 1959 Fiesta Red Fender Stratocaster Serial Number 34346 purchased & imported by Cliff Richard for Hank Marvin is now owned by Bruce Welch. A few years ago a limited number of exact copies of this guitar were produced by the Fender Custom Shop in California. Naturally, all of these were right handed guitars, which was quite a problem for our good friend John Bell, who is a left handed player. Following some protracted negotiations John is now the very proud owner of the only 34346 specification Left Handed Fender Stratocaster Serial Number 1/1 in the world produced for him by Fender. And you heard him play it here at the Surrey Shadows Club.

The legendary Jet Harris was born on 6 July, 1939 and was the first person in the UK to play an electric bass guitar in a band. He was the original bass player in Cliff Richard's backing group The Shadows and, in fact, it was Jet who thought up the name for the group. Jet appeared on many No.1 hit recordings, both backing Cliff Richard and also with The Shadows in their own right. After leaving The Shadows he had more hits on his own and with Tony Meehan, including their number one recording Diamonds. Jet continued to perform successfully until five weeks before his death on 18 March 2011, following a courageous two year battle against cancer of unknown primary. Jet's partner, Janet Hemingway, and close friends decided to create a fund in memory of Jet. The Jet Harris Memorial Fund aims to raise money for Cancer Research UK specifically to support research into cancer of unknown primary. [Picture of Jet used by kind permission of David Hawley]
