LAST MONTHS MEETING

Breakthru' started the evening off with with a good selecton of songs followed by the club members playing either with the band or to backing tracks.

As an added bonus this month we had a surprise tribute to the late Phil Scott with Phil's friend and fellow guitarist Tony Vee playing some of Phil's favourite numbers backed by Breakthru'. We also had a surprise auction of a red Burns Cobra guitar kindly donated by Colin Howell, the proceeds of this going to the young musicians charity which Phil supported.

I have been told that this event raised the sum of £430 from the raffle. If I'd known about this event beforehand I could have placed a notice in our newsletter, however it was organised only a week before our meeting.

A message from Colin....

The Surrey Shadows Club - 20th February 2015.

My Burns guitar raised £430 at the raffle last night and I made it up to £450 and donated it on behalf of all of us to Youth Music in memory of Phil.

Thank you all for your contributions, and a special thanks to Tony Vee for playing the guitar and for his excellent musical tribute.

The guitar by the way was won by a non-player who told me that he is giving it to his young nephew who has just started to play guitar. I thought that was well in keeping with the Charity that the money was going to.
