

June 2016 Newsletter

Our May Club Meeting

Last month saw the return of The Silver Shadows who opened up the evening with a good range of Shadows tunes, with Brian Haycock on lead guitar and Mark Winter on drums standing in for Chris Kenward who recently had an operation and is now at home recovering. We all wish him well and a speedy recovery.

The Players

Dave K & Friends Rob and Barry sang All my Sorrows and Move It
 Don Crisp played The Rise and Fall of Flingel Bunt and Shadoogie
 John Clarke played Cavatina and Perfidia
 John Cade played Going Home and Don't cry for me Argentina
 Alan Tarrant played Arabian Sunset and Temptation
 Stuart Osbourne played Gonzales and The Savage
 Mike Creamer, on his first visit to SSC, played FBI and Equinox
 Derek Misselbrook played One Way Ticket and Only Time
 John Bell played Cosy and Theme from Missing
 John Aylett played Rounding The Cape and Wonderful Land

A very warm welcome back to SSC to Brian Haycock with The Silver Shadows together with Bob Dore on Keyboards and Mark Winter on drums. Brian has been very busy with providing the music for a Pantomime earlier in the year and performing with The Bourne Again Shadows and Rock of Ages. So we were very pleased to see him back at Hersham.

Dave K and Friends Rob Hollins & Barry Waller gave us some great vocals with All My Sorrows and Move It! In the first half and Don't Talk To Him and I Could Easily Fall in the second time around.
