

October 2016 Newsletter

Our September Club Meeting

Last month saw the return of The Silver Shadows who opened up the evening with a terrific selection of Shadows tunes. After which our club players played their two numbers before the raffle was drawn for the Yamaha Pacifica Guitar at the halfway point of the evening.

It was a very good night with our club full of people enjoying the music.

The Players

Stuart Best played Perfidia and Walk Don't Run

John Clarke played FBI and The Breeze & I

Bob Withrington played Back Home and The Stranger

Mike Norris played Blue Sea, Blue Sky, Blue Me and Windjammer

Don Crisp played Sacha and Saturday Night at The Duck Pond

John Cade played Gonzales and Don't Cry For Me Argentina

Mike Gladwell played Chattanooga Choo Choo and In The Mood

Tony Dobson on Rhythm & Gareth Morgan on Lead played Midnight and Gonzales

Gareth Morgan & Tony Dobson sang It's So Easy and That'll Be The Day

Don Crisp on Rhythm & Jim Ford sang Wake up Little Suzie and All I Have to Do is Dream

The Moonshiners sang Heartbeat and Dance with The Guitar Man

SHOTGUN Ltd appearing at our 18th November Meeting

Our very good friends from France SHOTGUN Ltd will be making a welcome return visit to the Surrey Shadows Club at our 18th November meeting. On the Saturday they are booked for a gig in Forest Row in East Sussex to raise funds for the Forest Row Twinning Association. Michel Henaux is himself an active member of the Town Twinning organisation in Milly La Foret in France where he lives.

On Sunday 20th November they will be performing at the Eastbourne Shadows Club where a special lunch has been arranged. All Are Welcome!

..and here they all are meeting Bruce Welch during their visit to SSC last year

Mike Norris

Trevor Nicholson, Tony Dobson and Gareth Morgan

John Cade with The Silver Shadows

Congratulations to Jim Ford

On the evening Jim Ford from the Eastbourne Shadows Club was the lucky winner of Steve Juden's Yamaha Pacifica Guitar. So, a big thank you to everyone, for making our raffle such a big success, which raised an important £322 for SSC funds.
