Our March Club Meeting

After having to miss February's meeting, we really enjoyed this month's get together. The Faux Shadows were the house band and they opened the evening with a selection of great Shadows tunes.

It was nice to see a newcomer to the club, Pete Woolf from Horsham and hope to see him at the club again soon.

The Players

John Cade played Return to the Alamo, The Lute Number, Don't Cry For Me Argentina and Mountains of the Moon

Stewart Wood on bass played Foot Tapper, Dance on. FBI and The Frightened City

Alan Tarrant played Bobby's Girl, Diamonds, Arabian Sunset and Riders in the Sky

John Boulden played Sleepwalk, The Stranger, Dance On and Windy and Warm

Robin Surridge played Heartbeat, This Ole House and Guitar Tango

Pete Woolf, on drums playing for the very first time Wonderful Land and The Rise and Fall of Flingel Bunt

Peter Netley played Geronimo and Kon Tiki

Paul Larkin played Tonight and sung Don't Make My Baby Blue

Classified Ads

Every so often club members will bring guitars, pedals etc to the club which they wish to sell. If you would like your item to be placed in the newsletter to let people know before the club date, please e-mail me a picture and description at mtw3005@hotmail.com

FOR SALE

Burns Legend Guitar with factory fitted Kinman pickups

I am selling my Burns Guitar which is currently being advertised by Oasis Music in Ringwood. I have spoken to Howard the shop owner to confirm if it is okay for me to pass the word around.

The guitar was ordered in 1998 from Barry Gibson and cannot be faulted. I requested the legend be fitted with Kinman pickups as Hank Marvin had selected this pickup on his 40th anniversary signature model, they sound great and really powerful.

If you would like to have a look, please click the link below and see the great job Oasis did in advertising the guitar.
