Our October Club Meeting

WOW, what a great night of music. To mark the 60th anniversary of Cliff and The Drifters, along with the house band The Faux Shadows, we were also entertained by Rhythm and Greens featuring Cliff Hall, plus Barry Gibson's band, Rock Island Line with Pat Winn on vocals. We had an added bonus of having Bruce Welch visit the club again.

Many thanks to Nick McNulty, for standing in on bass guitar, also a big thank you to John Bell for doing the sound.

The Players

Roger Taylor	played Atlantis and Peace Pipe
Kevin Jones	on rhythm played The Stranger and Kon-Tiki
John Cade	played Rounding the Cape and Return to the Alamo
Alan Tarrant	played Theme from a Summer Place and Secrets of the Sea
Tony Knight	played Foot Tapper
John Scrymgeour	played Quartermasters Stores and Dakota
John Clarke	played Boot Hill and Going Home
Stuart Wood	on bass played Foot Tapper and Man of Mystery
Dave K	played Apache and Atlantis
Mike Gladwell	played The Boys and The Miracle
Brian M S	on bass played Whole Lotta Shakin' Goin' On and The Young Ones with Pat Winn on vocals
Terry Bryant & John Boulden	played Shotgun and Please Don't Tease, featuring Pat Winn

Rhythm and Greens played a great selection of songs including, Mountains of the Moon, Magnificent 7, Telstar, Pulaski, Theme From Missing, Nut Rocker.

Rock Island Line set included, Boney Maronie, Shakin' All Over That'll be the Day, Twenty Flight Rock, Folsom Prison Blues, Honey Don't, Hi Heal Sneakers, Maybelline.

Club News

For those that were able to attend last month's meeting, you would have seen the Burns King Cobra guitar and case we will be raffling. This will take place on Friday 21st December, our last club meeting for the year. For those that did not get tickets last month, there is still plenty of time. Proceeds from the raffle will go towards improving the club.
